DANVILLE, V.A., October 25.—The police authorities believe they have frustrated another attempt to liberate John Green, the negro murderer new in juli, under sentence to be hanged on November 3th. A strange white man, stving his name as G. H. Gallenger, was ploked up while creating a distorbance and drunk Friday night. His cell in juli was scarched by the julior and two small steel harksaws were found concealed in the straws in the mattress. It is thought that the man deliberately got drunk and created a disturbance for the purpose of being arrested in order that he could smuggle the tools into the Jail.

The case was called for trial in the Mayor's Court this morning, but was postponed, pending a fuller investigation.
